Substance Use and Addictions Program - Emergency Treatment Fund

RECOMMENDATION(S)

THAT Council authorize staff to enter into a funding agreement with Health Canada and the Ministry of Health through the Substance Use and Addictions Program - Emergency Treatment Fund.

Purpose:

To provide County Council with information about a proposed Outreach Program. The project aims to enhance support for vulnerable populations in Haliburton County through outreach services and has been approved for funding of critical one-time resources to operate the program.

REPORT HIGHLIGHTS

Key Findings:

- $1,176,390 has been approved toward eligible expenditures including an outreach van, safety equipment, medical supplies, and staffing support and training during the fiscal year of 2026-2027.
- The program aligns with the goals of the County's Community Safety and Well-Being Plan, including within the priority areas of Mental Health, Substance Use and Addiction and Healthcare and System Access.
- Haliburton County currently has a collaborative Community Mobile Outreach program within which this project can build on.
- The program is designed to measure community and client needs and satisfaction.

Financial Implications:

- Funding for the 2026-2027 program would be provided from the Substance Use and Addictions Program - Emergency Treatment Fund.

BACKGROUND

Federal Grant:

Canada is facing a public health crisis that has left no community untouched. This crisis has been driven by a complex set of factors, including a dangerous, illegal synthetic drug supply. The tragic impacts are seen and felt among our friends, our families, and our neighbours.

That is why the Government of Canada is focused on saving lives and connecting people to evidence-based services, including treatment and recovery, as well as other supports like housing.

Building on historic health care investments, including in mental health and substance use, Budget 2024 provided $150 million over 3 years for an Emergency Treatment Fund (ETF) for municipalities and Indigenous communities to help provide rapid responses to emergent, critical needs related to the substance use and overdose crisis.

Through this 2025 national call for proposals (CFP), Health Canada's Emergency Treatment Fund (ETF) will provide time-limited contribution funding to municipalities and Indigenous communities across Canada.

The ETF can fund projects that address urgent and immediate needs related to substance use and overdose, as defined by the communities, to support local capacity and provide access to culturally relevant, trauma-informed and evidence-based programs and services.

The ETF will prioritize urgent, financially feasible and project ready proposals that address the overdose crisis in communities across Canada.

Current Local Outreach Program:

In 2022 as our County's Community Safety and Well-Being Plan was being developed, Haliburton County relied on a single addictions worker to support in-need communities. Given this resource challenge, there was a significant gap in outreach capabilities. Since June 2023, the County has collaboratively built a well-known and ever-evolving Community Outreach program with numerous partners offering on-site support with community paramedic services; harm reduction services; income tax and heat and hydro programs; housing and homelessness services; literacy and employment programs; support with food insecurity, and mental health and addiction services.

This program provides essential supports and wraparound support for community members in multiple locations around the County that the area's most vulnerable residents would not easily be able to access otherwise.

This program operates without additional funding, just a willingness of service providers to reduce barriers for residents.

Analysis:

Haliburton County is facing a growing public health crisis related to drug poisonings and opioid overdoses.

AGENDA ITEM #6.1.

In a 2020 Community Health Summary conducted by the Haliburton, Kawartha, Pine Ridge District Health Unit (now Lakelands Public Health Unit), 51.5 per cent of residents believe there is no risk of overdosing from overusing prescription medicine; and 20.6 per cent of residents 18+ believe there is no risk of getting addicted to opioids. According to that same community summary, 8.9 per cent of residents in Grades 7 to 12 use opioids without prescription; and in 2019, there were 251 cases of drug poisoning among the wider population.

According to the Lakelands Public Health Unit, the region has experienced a higher hospitalization rate for drug poisoning than the provincial average, with fentanyl involved in 86% of opioid-related deaths in 2023. Although Haliburton County reported fewer deaths in 2024 compared to previous years, the unpredictability and toxicity of the unregulated drug supply continue to pose a significant threat to community health.

Fifteen opioid related deaths occurred in Haliburton County between 2019-2023, according to the 2024 Lakelands Public Health Drug Strategy Report. The crisis is compounded by geographic isolation, limited access to healthcare services, and social stigma, all which discourage individuals from seeking help and make it difficult to deliver timely interventions.

The need for mobile harm reduction services is particularly acute in rural communities like Haliburton County, where transportation barriers and sparse healthcare infrastructure limit access to life-saving resources. Research from the Wellington Guelph Drug Strategy highlights that mobile outreach programs are essential in filling service gaps, especially in remote areas. These programs provide low-barrier access to harm reduction supplies, health services, and peer support, often reaching individuals who are disconnected from traditional healthcare systems.

The proposed Outreach initiative aligns with the four-pillar approach endorsed by Ontario public health agencies, prevention, harm reduction, treatment, and community safety, and responds directly to the urgent need for expanded harm reduction infrastructure in Haliburton County.

The initiative also aligns with the goals of the County's Community Safety and Well-Being Plan's Mental Health, Substance Use and Addiction priority, including improving access to mental health and addiction support services; co-designing mental health and addiction services; and improving education on substance use and addiction, as well as the goals of the Healthcare and System Access priority, including enhancing and expanding service scope of virtual care for health and mental health in the County.

By deploying a mobile outreach unit in all weather, Haliburton County Paramedic Services will be able to reach individuals of all ages where they are, provide culturally safe and trauma-informed care, and reduce overdose-related harms in a timely and effective manner.

This project is not only timely but essential. It addresses a critical gap in service delivery, supports community resilience, and contributes to the broader provincial and national efforts to combat the overdose crisis.

To help with the analysis of the program, staff will elicit the assistance of University of Western Ontario Centre for Education Research & Innovation (CERI). The Centre has experience in conducting research on outreach programs including the Supportive Outreach Services (SOS) program operated by Grey County.

Financial Impact:

AGENDA ITEM #6.1.

The Emergency Treatment Fund has authorized up to one million one hundred seventy-six thousand three hundred and ninety dollars ($1,176,390) towards eligible expenditures to establish and operate the proposed mobile outreach program in Haliburton County until April 1, 2027. Sustainability of the program from April 1, 2027, will rely on budgetary approval by County Council.

The following types of expenditures are eligible for funding:

- Personnel salaries and benefits (non-medical)
- Contractual personnel
- Travel and accommodation
- Materials and supplies
- Equipment
- Rent and utilities
- Performance measurement (research and evaluation)
- Capital expenditures (vehicle purchase and retrofit)
- Other costs, such as honoraria or administrative costs

Associated costs, per worker covered until March 31, 2027, for non-paramedic staff, a mental health worker, outreach support worker, and peer support workers are as follows:

Mental Health Worker – Total compensation is $85000 + 35% benefit rate = $114,750

Outreach Support Worker – Total compensation is $85000 + 35% benefit rate = $114,750

Peer Support Worker – Part-time at $25/hour/up to 40 hours per week = $52,000

The funding provides for 2 Mental Health and 2 Outreach Support workers for the duration of the program. The Peer Support worker is based on 3 – 4 part-time workers working up to 40 hours per week between them.

Starting April 1 – December 31, 2027, to maintain the program the cost to the budget is $$86062.50 \times 4$ workers = $344,250 + $39,000 for peer support totaling $383,250.

January 1, 2028 – December 31, 2028 – Total compensation for the 4 full-time workers would be $468,180 which includes a 2% increase to total compensation costs. Peer support workers would increase to $25.50/hr or $53,040.

Total Budget Impact - Wages

April 1-December 31, 2027 - $383,250

January 1-December 31, 2028 - $521,220

We will pursue opportunities for other grant funding to help offset the costs of wages for the program.

When the funding ends on April 1, 2027, there will be an ongoing financial commitment for vehicle upkeep, routine maintenance, and fuel costs for the vehicle.

Vehicle costs

Fuel - $700/month = $8400/year

Maintenance - $3000/year (variable)

Total - $11,400/year

AGENDA ITEM #6.1.

The Community Paramedic program will provide support and resources to the mobile outreach program. The hours of the CP program will help with providing support during the non-traditional hours of the current system, such as evenings and weekends.

Strategic Alignment:

The proposed project aligns with the goals of the County's Community Safety and Well-Being Plan including within the Mental Health, Substance Use and Addiction priority, and the Healthcare and System Access priority.

Haliburton County's plan was developed through in-depth engagement and consultation with community members, service providers, and government leadership in the county, four key priority areas for action were identified, and intervention and strategic goals were developed for each priority. Haliburton County's Community Safety and Well-Being Plan is being updated this year, however, the Priority Areas are expected to be renewed.

Mental Health, Substance Use, and Addiction

Goal 7: Increase access to, and awareness of, mental health and addiction support services.

Goal 8: Co-design and develop experience-based mental health and addiction and substance use support services and programs.

Goal 9: Improve education, awareness, and information sharing on substance use and addiction, harm reduction, and mental health.

March 20 at 1:09 PM · 🌐

On March 17th, 2026, the #HaliburtonHighlands OPP responded to reports of a collision involving a tractor trailer and a passenger vehicle. One person was transported to hospital with non-life threatening or life-altering injuries. The #HHOPP were on scene for several hours. As a result of the collision, the driver of the transport truck was charged with an offence under the Highway Traffic Act.

While on scene, officers were blown away by the support and kindness of many community members. In the time it took emergency responders to arrive, community members worked together to ensure public safety on a particularly difficult stretch of roadway. Another young community member came out to the scene to offer a hot meal to the involved drivers. The Dysart Fire Department and local paramedic services also assisted during a particularly challenging day in the county. Thank you to everyone who contributes to road safety in our communities. ^h.n.

When towing or moving a load of any kind, please review the necessary requirements before you go. When it doubt, contact a professional to help get you and your precious cargo to your destination safely. ^h.n.

Stunt Driving

Ontario Provincial Police - Central Region

April 25 at 11:18 PM · 🌐

Last night, the #HaliburtonHighlands OPP stopped this vehicle for travelling 157km/h in a posted 80km/h zone. The driver was charged with Stunt Driving and their vehicle was impounded for 14 days. These speeds are irresponsible and dangerous. Upon speaking with the driver, officers learned his licence was already suspended. He faces a court date to answer to three separate charges.

#HHOPP remind all motorists to follow the speed limits as the weather warms up. We see vehicle collisions almost every day in Haliburton County involving wildlife. Deer, moose and other animals can be unpredictable and difficult to see. Safe driving habits ensure the safety of drivers, passengers and everyone else. ^h.n See less

Dear Chiefs of Police, Commissioner Carrique and Board Chairs,

I write in my capacity as the Inspector appointed by the Inspector General of Policing, Ryan Teschner, under s. 111 of the Community Safety and Policing Act, 2019 (“CSPA”) to inform you that I am commencing a sector-wide inspection of police services and police service boards across Ontario, focused on police integrity and anti-corruption.

The purpose of this letter is to introduce the inspection and outline its scope and objectives. A formal inspection notice, including detailed information regarding methodology, timelines, and expectations for participation, will follow in the coming weeks. Enclosed with this letter are the Terms of Reference that have been established by Inspector General Teschner, and which set out the full mandate and parameters of the inspection.

By way of introduction, I have spent decades in the Ontario and Canadian justice system, most recently serving as a Justice of the Court of Appeal for Ontario. During my tenure on the Court of Appeal, I acted as a Commissioner of Inquiry in Ontario and completed an investigation for the Government of Alberta under that province’s Police Act.

I am supported by Sandra Barton and Adam Bazak of Gowling WLG, who will serve as my Lead Counsel and Associate Lead Counsel, with support from a small team of Gowling WLG litigators. Ms. Barton and Mr. Bazak will both be appointed as inspectors by the Inspector General under the CSPA. Preston Lim, one of the lawyers who worked with me on the investigation for the Government of Alberta, will also be appointed as an inspector. We will approach this work with rigour, focusing on whether the systems designed to protect police integrity are working as intended, and supporting police officers and civilian members in delivering high-quality services that keep communities across Ontario safe.

Purpose and Nature of the Inspection

I want to emphasize at the outset that this inspection is organizational or institutional in nature and will examine issues of anti-corruption and integrity as it relates to police services and boards as organizational actors within Ontario’s policing system. This inspection is not an investigation into the conduct of any individual officer or civilian member. As intended by Inspector General Teschner, this inspection will be system-focused and forward-looking, designed to strengthen the institutional frameworks that support police integrity across Ontario. The inspection will not interfere with any existing judicial process and will seek not to duplicate any quasi-judicial or regulatory process.

As part of this inspection, the inspection team will be required to:

1. determine how police services and police service boards are meeting statutory and regulatory expectations through governance, oversight, and operational practices in relation to integrity, accountability, and public trust; and
2. examine how police services and police service boards design, implement, and oversee institutional frameworks and operational practices that support police integrity and mitigate corruption risks.

Thematic Areas of the Inspection

In accordance with the Terms of Reference, the inspection will be organized around five thematic areas, while retaining flexibility to examine additional matters as needed:

1. supervision and span of control, including training and practices that enable early identification and management of integrity risks;
2. screening and vetting of officers and civilian members at recruitment and throughout their careers, including progression into higher-risk roles;
3. access to police databases and information systems, including permissions, controls, monitoring, and application of the principle of least privilege;
4. evidence and property management, including chain-of-custody safeguards and controls; and,
5. substance use and fitness for duty, with an emphasis on early identification, evidence-based assessment, and supports that uphold both public trust and member wellness.

Across these themes, the inspection will consider systemic patterns, governance and oversight arrangements, and the sustainability of practices over time, rather than isolated incidents or individual conduct.

These thematic areas will be assessed with reference to the CSPA and regulations enacted pursuant to the CSPA. The inspection may also draw upon recognized best practices in policing and public-sector integrity.

Our objective is to assess operational and governance practices, identify strengths and risks, and develop evidence-informed observations that support sector-wide improvement and continued public confidence in policing. To that end, the inspection team is currently focused on designing the methodology for our review, and establishing a baseline understanding of existing frameworks, practices, and sector-wide considerations across Ontario and, where useful, other jurisdictions. As you know, following the completion of the inspection, I am required to submit my findings reports to Inspector General Teschner, so that he can determine whether and what legally-binding directions may be required to address my findings.

Cooperation and Engagement

Your cooperation and engagement will be integral to the effectiveness of this inspection. I recognize that an inspection of this scope will place demands on the time and resources of your service and board. My team and I are committed to conducting this work in a fair, respectful, and collaborative manner, that minimizes disruption to your operations, while ensuring a thorough and credible process. We will work with you to coordinate scheduling and to streamline information requests wherever possible.

Next Steps

In the coming weeks, a member of my team will contact your office to arrange an initial introductory conversation. The purpose of that meeting will be to outline the inspection approach, discuss logistics, and answer any preliminary questions you may have. Following that conversation, you will receive a formal inspection notice setting out:

- the specific scope of engagement for your service;
- the inspection methodology and process;
- timelines and key milestones;
- expectations regarding document production and access; and
- confidentiality and information-handling protocols.

No action is required on your part at this time.

Closing

My team and I are committed to approaching this work in a fair, respectful, and collaborative manner, grounded in statutory authority and the terms established by the Inspector General, and guided by a shared interest in strengthening public confidence in policing in Ontario.

I look forward to working with you and your service throughout this process. Further information will be shared as the inspection methodology and engagement plan are finalized.

Yours sincerely,

The Honourable William Hourigan

Inspector General of Policing Memorandum

TO: All Chiefs of Police and Commissioner Thomas Carrique, C.O.M.
Chairs, Police Service Boards

FROM: Ryan Teschner, Inspector General of Policing of Ontario

DATE: April 23, 2026

SUBJECT: Inspector General Memo #10: Province-Wide Inspection on Police Integrity and Anti-Corruption Practices Update

I am writing to provide an update on the province-wide inspection on police integrity and anti-corruption practices that I initiated in February 2026.

This afternoon, I will publicly announce the appointment of the Honourable William Hourigan as an inspector under the Community Safety and Policing Act to lead this inspection. In this role, Mr. Hourigan has the legal authority to obtain all information required to conduct the inspection, which will proceed in accordance with the Terms of Reference I have established (which are attached to this IG Memorandum).

Mr. Hourigan brings extensive experience in law and public service, having served on the Ontario Court of Appeal and the Ontario Superior Court of Justice, and having led significant independent inquiries and statutory reviews for government, including in the area of policing and police governance. I am grateful he has agreed to carry out this inspection.

In addition to the Terms of Reference, enclosed with this IG Memorandum is a letter from Mr. Hourigan that introduces the inspection, explains its system-focused approach, and outlines how he and his team will engage as the inspection unfolds. In the coming weeks, Mr. Hourigan's team will be in contact to begin this engagement, and further information will be shared as the inspection moves forward.

The appointment of Mr. Hourigan to lead this inspection, and the establishment of the Terms of Reference that will guide the work, represent an important next step in advancing the commitment I outlined in February to maintain public confidence in Ontario's policing system.

I appreciate your cooperation and engagement as this work moves forward.

Sincerely,

Ryan Teschner

Encl. Letter to Sector from The Honourable William Hourigan
Terms of Reference

Terms of Reference for Province-Wide Inspection on Police Integrity and Anti-Corruption Practices

MANDATE

On February 9, 2026, Ontario's Inspector General of Policing ("Inspector General"), Ryan Teschner, announced a province-wide inspection to examine police integrity and anti-corruption practices across Ontario's policing sector. The Inspector General has determined that this sector-wide approach is necessary to identify strengths and opportunities to further fortify Ontario's policing system against corruption and integrity risks. The inspection ("Inspection") will consist of several interrelated inspections that will focus on issues within defined areas.

Pursuant to subsection 111(1) of the Community Safety and Policing Act, 2019,¹ ("CSPA"), the Inspector General has appointed the Honourable William Hourigan as the inspector ("Inspector") to conduct this work. With this appointment, Inspector Hourigan possesses all the legal authorities required to conduct this Inspection and will prepare and submit Findings Reports that can lead to the Inspector General issuing legally-binding directions ("Directions").

The purpose of the Inspection is to conduct a comprehensive, independent and transparent examination of police integrity and anti-corruption practices within the province's policing and police governance sector. The Inspection will gather evidence: to assess any non-compliance with the CSPA and its regulations; to identify any systemic issues, shortcomings and areas for improvement; and to inform any Direction(s) that the Inspector General may issue to improve the performance of police services and boards in preventing, detecting and responding to corruption.

The Inspection is established in recognition of the fact that: (i) all aspects of policing are conducted on behalf of the public and in the public interest; (ii) effective policing requires public confidence in Ontario's police services; (iii) public confidence is primarily built and maintained by police services and boards, and (iv) the policing system is interconnected and has interdependencies, including the sharing of information between organizations, the movement of personnel from one police service to another, and investigations or other matters that involve multiple police services.

The Inspection will cover all of Ontario's police services and police service boards as defined by the CSPA. The sector-wide Inspection will focus on five defined areas, with the ability to examine additional areas as the need arises during the Inspection:

1. Supervision and span of control, including a review of the methods and effectiveness of officer supervision

- Primary objectives include:
 - Determine how supervisors are trained to identify areas of vulnerability, early warning signs of corruption and performance deficiencies to address issues before they escalate or propagate;
 - Understand how corruption can progress from individual to systemic corruption within police services; and
 - Determine what practices and approaches ensure the appropriate level of risk-management and supervisory engagement, including by examining best practices from other jurisdictions and sectors.

2. Screening and vetting of police officers and civilian members both at recruitment and on an ongoing basis

- Primary objectives include:
 - Define “corruption” and “corruption risks”;
 - Understand the causes or risk factors that create opportunities for corruption at both the recruitment stage and throughout a policing career;
 - Identify proven practices for preventing and detecting corruption; and
 - Identify effective, evidence-based practices for screening new police service members and active members throughout their career, including when progressing into more senior or high-risk roles, for integrity, suitability, and ability to meet service standards, including by examining best practices from other jurisdictions.

3. Access to police databases and information systems, including permissions, controls and clearances

- Primary objectives include:
 - Identify how police database and information systems can be proactively and reactively monitored, including through the use of Information and Information Technology solutions, to prevent misuse and detect early warning signs of corruption or potentially corrupt activity; and
 - Review role-based access permissions to determine effective approaches for applying the principle of least privilege to ensure police service members only have access to information necessary for their current duties, including by examining best practices from other jurisdictions.

4. Evidence and property management practices

- Primary objectives include:
 - Identify best practices for evidence and property management that comply with regulatory requirements and the Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms;²
 - Determine how police services can maintain a process to ensure a rigorous, unbroken chain of custody for all physical and digital evidence from the point of seizure through to final disposition; and
 - Understand how to manage the risks of theft and evidence tampering to implement effective precautionary measures, including by examining best practices from other jurisdictions.

² Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms, Part I of the Constitution Act, 1982, being Schedule B to the Canada Act 1982 (U.K.), 1982, c. 11.

5. Substance abuse and fitness for duty

- Primary objectives include:
 - Understand how police services can identify officers who may be struggling with substance abuse or other wellness issues before these issues affect their fitness for duty;
 - Identify evidence-based criteria for prompting and conducting fitness for duty assessments; and
 - Determine how police services can support members' wellness and rehabilitation while maintaining public trust, including by examining best practices from other jurisdictions.

LEGAL FRAMEWORK FOR THIS INSPECTION

The Inspector General is appointed through Order-in-Council under the CSPA and is mandated to ensure compliance with the CSPA and its regulations through inspections, investigations, monitoring and advisory services.

This Inspection will be conducted pursuant to Ontario's CSPA and shall operate with the full powers, protections, and immunities afforded thereunder.

To the extent reasonably possible, activities conducted under the Inspection must not compromise any ongoing police investigation, public prosecution, or misconduct investigation. The Inspector may defer or pause examination of specific matters if the Inspector is satisfied that proceeding would prejudice ongoing or pending criminal investigations, prosecutions, or misconduct investigations. The Inspector may consult with relevant prosecutorial authorities or with the Law Enforcement Complaints Agency regarding any such concerns.

The Inspector will notify the Inspector General if, during the Inspection, they become aware of conduct that may constitute a criminal offence, misconduct, or a matter that otherwise requires notification to the Inspector General pursuant to section 120 of the CSPA. The Inspector General or the Inspector may disclose information obtained as may be required for any law enforcement purpose pursuant to section 119 of the CSPA.

As required by the CSPA, all police services, police services boards and the Ontario Provincial Police shall cooperate fully with the Inspection, including by providing timely and unrestricted access to requested information, records, data, personnel and premises. The Inspector shall notify the Inspector General if the lack of cooperation of an entity or individual involved in the Inspection may affect the Inspector's ability to conduct the Inspection. If the entity or individual identified by the Inspector fails to cooperate with this Inspection within a reasonable time as determined by the Inspector General, the Inspector General may issue such Direction as deemed necessary and as permitted by law to ensure the integrity of the Inspection and the effective fulfilment of these Terms of Reference. For clarity, offences in relation to the conduct of the Inspection pursuant to section 129 of the CSPA apply.

Costs of the Inspection will be borne by the Province of Ontario through the Office of the Inspector General and shall be paid and incurred in accordance with applicable Government of Ontario guidelines and requirements.

The Inspector will provide a financial report on the costs of the Inspection to the Inspector General on an annual basis and as otherwise required, and the Inspector General shall make that information publicly available in the appropriate form.

Inspection Counsel shall act at the direction, and on behalf of the Inspector, and shall not act as advocates for any party or special interest.

The Inspection shall be supported by such administrative staff, researchers, investigators, experts, and other personnel as the Inspector considers necessary to carry out the mandate. The Inspector and Inspection Counsel shall have the authority to form retained expert panels as deemed necessary throughout the course of the Inspection to assist in the execution of these Terms of Reference.

TIMING AND REPORTING

The Inspection will be conducted in a timely and thorough manner, reflecting the urgency and importance of the issues under review.

Following the appointment of the Inspector, the Inspector will provide progress updates on the Inspection to the Inspector General at least every six months. The Inspector General shall publish the progress updates on the internet in a manner consistent with applicable legislation, such as the FIPPA. Notwithstanding this timeline, the Inspector, in agreement with the Inspector General, may amend the frequency for which progress updates are provided if the Inspector and Inspector General agree that amending the timeline would better fulfil these Terms of Reference, including the objectives of promoting transparency and public trust.

The Inspector will provide Findings Report(s) to the Inspector General when,

- the Inspector is satisfied that inspection of one of the defined areas under the Inspection is complete and the Findings Report can support the issuing of any Directions by the Inspector General;
- at the conclusion of the entire Inspection; and/or
- at any other time as deemed necessary by the Inspector.

The Inspector General shall independently review all Findings Reports and may, where the report discloses evidence of non-compliance with the CSPA or its regulations, or that an act or omission will likely result in such non-compliance, issue legally-binding Directions to police service(s), police boards(s), and/or chief(s) of police. The Inspector General will publish all Findings Reports and any Directions on the internet, in a manner that complies with the CSPA and its regulations.

AMENDMENT OF TERMS OF REFERENCE

These Terms of Reference may be amended by the Inspector General should such amendment become necessary to clarify the mandate, address unforeseen circumstances, or otherwise ensure the effective operation of the Inspection.

Dear Chiefs of Police and Board Chairs,

On behalf of the Inspectorate of Policing, I wish to acknowledge the professionalism, dedication, and service of those who work across Ontario's police services as we come together this weekend to mark the Ontario Police Foundation Ceremony of Remembrance.

This annual ceremony provides a solemn opportunity to reflect on the inherent risks faced by police officers in the course of their duties and on the lasting impact their service has on the safety and well-being of communities throughout Ontario. It is a time to honour those who made the ultimate sacrifice, to stand in solidarity with the families and colleagues who carry their loss, and to recognize those who continue to serve with resolve, compassion and integrity.

As we pay tribute, we are also reminded of our shared responsibility to support policing that is fair, effective, and responsive to the needs of the communities it serves. The Ceremony of Remembrance not only honours the legacy of those who have fallen, but also reinforces our collective commitment to strengthening the systems that support those who serve today and into the future.

Thank you for your continued leadership and dedication to public service. Together, we honour the legacy of those we have lost and reaffirm our support for those who continue to serve communities across Ontario with dedication and courage.

Sincerely,

Ryan Teschner
